

ARTS AND HUMANITIES TEACHING EXCELLENCE AWARDS

[Revised April 2016]

These awards recognize teaching excellence in the Faculty of Arts and Humanities. Aspects of teaching that will be taken into account may include classroom and seminar teaching at the undergraduate and/or graduate level, course design, curriculum development, thesis supervision and educational outreach.

Two awards will be presented annually: one to a full-time faculty member, and one to a part-time faculty member. Each award includes a $1500 grant to be used to enhance educational development. In the case of full-time faculty, the grant may be used for research and/or educational development.

Recipients will be chosen by the Arts and Humanities Teaching Excellence Awards Committee, augmented by 2 students (usually the AHSC representatives on EPC). The committee will conduct its business virtually, with files posted to an OWL site and decision made through an on-line process.

Each Department in the Faculty of Arts and Humanities may nominate one full-time and one part-time faculty member annually. A complete nomination must include

- a current curriculum vitae
- course evaluations for the previous year and for one additional year (within the last five years)
- a letter of nomination from the Chair of the Department. Additional evidence (up to five [5] pages) of teaching excellence is also welcome.

Previous recipients of the award are not eligible to be nominated.

Completed nominations must be received in the Dean's Office (please submit to Tracy Isaacs, tisaacs@uwo.ca) by January 31.
