Faculty Position in Business, Economics and Public Policy

The Ivey Business School at Western University seeks candidates for a Probationary (tenure-track) appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor or Associate Professor, or a Tenured appointment, at the rank of Associate Professor or Professor, in the area of Business, Economics and Public Policy. A Limited Term or Visiting appointment may also be considered; rank to be determined by qualifications and experience. The position is available to begin in July 2018, although alternate start dates may be arranged.

Candidates from disciplines including strategy and economics will be considered. The Business, Economics and Public Policy group has a strong research-oriented faculty and is committed to the development of world class scholarship. While all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply, those with research interests in the interaction between firms and their external institutional environment will be given special consideration. The teaching areas of the group include managerial economics, public policy, and nonmarket strategy. Links to practice through past work experience and/or consulting are an advantage.

Tenured Position: Applicants for a tenured appointment at the rank of Associate Professor or Professor will hold a PhD (or equivalent degree). The successful candidate will be an internationally recognized scholar in his or her field of research, as demonstrated by publications in the highest quality academic journals, an active continuing research program, external research funding, scholarly awards, and invited presentations at seminars and major conferences. Demonstrated ability to successfully teach in core undergraduate, MSc and/or MBA courses using a case discussion format is required.

Probationary Position (tenure-track): Applicants for a probationary (tenure-track) appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor must already have, or be nearing completion of, their doctorate. The ideal candidate should have excellent research capabilities as demonstrated by high quality working papers, presentations at major conferences, publications in top academic journals, and strong letters of reference from recognized leading scholars. The ability to teach in core undergraduate, MSc and/or MBA courses using a case discussion format is essential.

Limited Term Position: Applicants considered for a Limited Term appointment are expected to have an MBA or related graduate degree plus significant industry experience, or have or be nearing completion of their doctorate. The successful candidate will have demonstrated excellence in case teaching in core undergraduate, MSc and/or MBA courses using a case discussion format.

Application Procedure: Applicants are encouraged to submit materials (curriculum vitae, three letters of reference and copies of research papers) online to facultypositions@ivey.ca (See http://www.ivey.uwo.ca/faculty/career-opportunities/ for other application details). Please ensure that the form available at http://www.uwo.ca/facultyrelations/faculty/Application-FullTime-Faculty-Position-Form.pdf is completed and included in your application submission. Review of applicants will commence on December 6, 2017, although applications will be considered until the position is filled. Some interviews will be conducted at the ASSA Annual Meeting in Philadelphia from 5-7 January.

The Ivey Business School is Canada’s premier business school and is recognized globally for the quality of its management education and research. The School’s major activities include: a highly regarded MBA program and undergraduate program; a well-established doctoral program; and a diverse portfolio of executive programs.
