GI and LIVER PATHOLOGIST
Department of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine
Western University, London Health Sciences Centre & St. Joseph’s Health Care London

Posting Date: March 8, 2018

Position Profile: A Full-time Limited Term Clinical Academic appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor, Associate Professor, or a Continuing Clinical Academic appointment at the rank of Associate Professor or Professor, depending upon experience and qualifications at the time of appointment.

Academic and Clinical Environment: The Program of Pathology in London is one of the largest single-sited departments in Canada, with an annual workload of over 58,000 surgical specimens, 20,000 cytology specimens and 700 autopsies. The department has a long history of strength and excellence in many areas of diagnostic service, teaching and research, and is highly collegial with an environment conducive to career and personal development.

The pathology service is subspecialized and the successful candidate would be expected to play a major role in the gastrointestinal and liver pathology service; participation in a second subspecialty service would be desirable but is not required. There is well-developed interaction between the clinical gastroenterology, hepatology and transplant services. The ideal candidate should have a strong academic background and will participate actively in the Program’s academic initiatives including teaching and supervision of undergraduate students, residents, and fellows as well as research and quality initiatives. Applicants considered at the rank of Associate or Full Professor must have demonstrated the ability to publish in the highest quality academic and subspecialty journals and be a recognized expert in his or her field of pathology.

Qualifications: Candidates must hold an MD or equivalent and be eligible for medical licensure with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario and must have postgraduate training/qualifications in Anatomical or General Pathology. Preference will be given to applicants who hold certification from the Royal College of Physicians & Surgeons of Canada or the American Board of Medical Specialties.

Compensation Details: Compensation for this position will be commensurate with qualifications and experience and will be primarily composed of hospital funding based on the MOHLTC Laboratory Medicine Funding agreement.

The City: London, Ontario. London is Canada’s 10th largest city with a population of 400,000, a catchment area of 2 million, and is situated in southwestern Ontario between Toronto and Detroit. The region has a diverse economy and excellent educational opportunities. It is a safe and diverse city and its numerous parks, trails, recreational, cultural and sporting opportunities make it an attractive place to live.

The University: Western University delivers an academic experience second to none. Western challenges the best and brightest faculty, staff and students to commit to the highest global standards. Our research excellence expands knowledge and drives discovery with real-world application. Western attracts individuals with a broad worldview, seeking to study, influence and lead in the international community. Since 1878, The Western Experience has combined academic excellence with life-long opportunities for intellectual, social and cultural growth in order to better serve our communities.

To apply: Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Review of applications will begin after April 15, 2018 with an anticipated start date of September 1, 2018 or as negotiated.

Interested candidates should send a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, and the names and addresses of three references to the address below; and also complete, sign and include the form at the following link:
