Position: Assistant, Associate or Professor Specializing in Applied Behavior Analysis
Posting Date: April 12, 2016
Closing Date: May 11, 2016

The Faculty of Education at Western University invites applications for a full-time faculty position at the rank of Assistant Professor (tenure-track), Associate Professor (tenure-track or tenured), or Professor (tenured) in the area of Applied Psychology, with responsibilities for leadership in Applied Behavior Analysis. The rank will be commensurate with the successful candidate’s qualifications and experience. The preferred starting date for this position is September 1, 2016, but it is negotiable.

Responsibilities:

• Teach and provide administrative leadership in the Master of Professional Education program in Applied Behavior Analysis, and liaise with the Behavior Analyst Certification Board;
• Teach and supervise doctoral students in the Ph.D. program in School Psychology;
• Offer courses in areas of expertise to students enrolled in the Bachelor of Education program;
• Maintain a strong research and publication program, and obtain external funding;
• Participate in community service within and beyond the Faculty of Education.

Required Qualifications:

• An earned doctorate in psychology or related field (e.g., education, social work, nursing);
• Qualification as Board Certified Behavior Analyst or Board Certified Behavior Analyst-Doctoral;
• Evidence of an active research program related to applied behavior analysis or psychology in the schools. Other areas will be considered.

Western’s Faculty of Education has been at the leading edge of education in Canada since 1962 and offers educational opportunities at the baccalaureate, master’s and doctoral levels. Believing today’s children are tomorrow’s leaders, the Faculty strives to strengthen the field of education to help ensure every child has the opportunity to flourish. Western’s Faculty of Education collaborates with more than 500 partners in 23 countries, and attracts top faculty members from around the world. The Faculty has conducted numerous provincial, national and international studies that were the first or largest of their kind, and is home to four dedicated research centres – the Centre for Research & Education on Violence Against Women and Children, the Centre for School Mental Health, the Canadian Research Centre on Inclusive Education and the Centre for Educational Leadership. With more than 37,000 alumni residing in Canada and in 35 countries around the world, Western’s Faculty of Education graduates have gone on to have influential careers and become leaders on a global scale.

More information on the Faculty of Education can be obtained at http://www.edu.uwo.ca/.
Interested candidates must complete an application form available at http://www.uwo.ca/facultyrelations/faculty/Application-FullTime-Faculty-Position-Form.pdf and submit it with a letter of application specifying qualifications for the position; a teaching portfolio which includes a teaching philosophy, a statement of teaching interests and evidence of successful teaching experiences such as course evaluations; a description of research accomplishments and plans for future research; a description of potential contributions to the Faculty; a Google Scholar profile; an up-to-date curriculum vitae; and the names of three referees along with their contact information. Candidates are encouraged to submit those materials electronically to deaned@uwo.ca and address the letter of application to Dr. Vicki Schwean, Dean, Faculty of Education, Western University, 1137 Western Road, London, Ontario N6G 1G7.

Review of applications will begin after May 11, 2016 and, subject to budgetary approval, will continue until the position is filled.

This position is subject to budget approval. Applicants should have fluent written and oral communication skills in English. The University invites applications from all qualified individuals.
Western University is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, members of racialized groups/visible minorities, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of any sexual orientation, and persons of any gender identity or gender expression. In accordance with Canadian Immigration requirements, priority will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents.

Accommodations are available for applicants with disabilities throughout the recruitment process.
If you require accommodations for interviews or other meetings, please contact Ms. Vangie Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca and/or 519-661-2111 extension 88653.