SCHOOL OF HEALTH STUDIES, FACULTY OF HEALTH SCIENCES
is seeking outstanding candidates for a
TWO-YEAR LIMITED-TERM FACULTY POSITION IN HEALTH PROMOTION ACROSS THE LIFE COURSE

The School of Health Studies invites applications for a 2-year limited-term faculty position. This position is at the rank of Lecturer or Assistant Professor, in Health Promotion Across the Life Course. The successful candidate will be appointed to the School of Health Studies (http://www.uwo.ca/fhs/shs/) and will be responsible for providing a dynamic program of health promotion education at the undergraduate level. Principle duties will include teaching the following health promotion and aging courses:

- HS 3025A/B – Integrative Health
- HS 3050A/B – Health Related Quality of Life
- HS 3071A/B – Determinants of Health and Disease OR HS 3704A/B – Population Aging and Health
- HS 4240F/G – Knowledge Translation in Health
- HS 4702A/B – The Aging Mind OR HS 4710A/B – Palliative and End of Life Care
- HS 4740A/B – Chronic Disease Prevention and Management
- Summer intersession course TBD

The successful candidate will be expected to participate in relevant service to the School of Health Studies and university. Opportunities for collaborative research are also available. Candidates must hold a PhD or Master’s degree in a related health field, have demonstrated excellence in teaching and/or research in the area of Health Promotion and enthusiasm for quality undergraduate education. The candidate will have demonstrated expertise in developing and teaching courses in traditional and flexible learning environments. The effective date of the appointment is July 1, 2017, or as negotiated. Salary and rank commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Western University delivers an academic experience second to none. Our research excellence expands knowledge and drives discovery with real-world application. Since 1878, The Western Experience has combined academic excellence with life-long opportunities for intellectual, social and cultural growth to better serve our communities. With a full-time enrolment of 32,000, Western University is a leading research-intensive university with a full-range of academic and professional programs. General information about Western can be found at http://www.uwo.ca. The university campus is in London (www.london.ca), a thriving city with a metropolitan census of 530,000, located midway between Toronto and Detroit.

Interested applicants should send a detailed curriculum vita including teaching dossier, a cover letter, the names of three academic referees and a completed Application for Full-Time Position (available at http://www.uwo.ca/facultyrelations/pdf/careers/Faculty/Application-FullTime-Faculty-Position-Form.pdf) to:

Dr. Dan Belliveau, Director
School of Health Studies, Faculty of Health Sciences
Arthur & Sonia Labatt Health Sciences Building, Room 222
Western University
London, Ontario N6A 5B9
Email: dbellive@uwo.ca

Please quote number HS 167 on all correspondence for this position.

The deadline for receipt of applications is March 31, 2017.

Positions are subject to budget approval. Applicants should have fluent written and oral communication skills in English. The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Western is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, members of racialized groups/visible minorities, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of any sexual orientation, and persons of any gender identity or gender expression.

In accordance with Canadian Immigration requirements, priority will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents.

Accommodations are available for applicants with disabilities throughout the recruitment process. If you require accommodations for interviews or other meetings, please contact Dr. Dan Belliveau, Director, School of Health Studies at dbellive@uwo.ca or 519 661-4119.