

Survey of Feminist Philosophy

This course provides a survey of different areas of feminist philosophy, including (though not necessarily limited to) feminist metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, philosophy of language, and political philosophy. The course also covers core concepts in feminist philosophy, such as oppression, privilege, and intersectionality.

C. McLeod

Fall Term 2017