Notes for Faculty and Staff:

No member of the Board of Governors whose salary is paid under a Collective Agreement or Memorandum of Agreement between the University and a union or employee association may serve as a member of any team negotiating matters related to the remuneration or benefits, terms of employment, rights or privileges available to employees in a class or group of employees of the University.

Any faculty member elected to the Board of Governors will not be a member of the UWOFA bargaining unit as set out in the Collective Agreement.

In accordance with the Collective Agreement between UWOFA and the University, a faculty member may not simultaneously be a Department Chair and a member of the Board of Governors.

Notes for Undergraduate and Graduate Students:

Candidates, or their representatives, must attend the mandatory All Candidates' Meeting. The meeting will be held on Friday, January 27, 5:00 PM (Room 4155, Stevenson Hall). Any candidate who does not attend the meeting and who does not send a representative will be AUTOMATICALLY DISQUALIFIED from candidacy.

Candidates must be over the age of 18 to be eligible for nomination. Undergraduate student candidates must abide by the campaign rules established by the Board of Governors.

Graduate student candidates must abide by the elections rules established by SOGS. The University Secretary employs the SOGS Election Committee (including its Chief and Deputy Returning Officers) to supervise campaigning; however, the University Secretary retains final authority for the election as the Chief Returning Officer.
