The following faculty members have been nominated for the SGPS – At-Large constituency on the Senate (term from July 1, 2015 – June 30, 2017). The statements and photos of candidates, if available, have been included below.

1. PEARSON, Wendy – Arts & Humanities/Social Science, Women's Studies
2. SHUEY, Kim – Social Science, Sociology

PEARSON, Wendy

Coming from an interdisciplinary department, I believe I will bring a useful perspective to Senate that will speak to a number of different disciplines in the university. I have had some experience in the past, having been on Senate at Trent University for four years in the 1990s. As a representative of SGPS, I will be particularly attentive to the role of graduate students and the place of graduate teaching in the university.

SHUEY, Kim
