Visiting Student Funding

If you wish to invite a domestic prospective graduate student to visit the department:

All funds are dependent on the graduate budget and must be approved by the Graduate Chair.

- the Department will pay for accommodations and some portion of the flight up to half of the total cost (max $1000)
- applicant must have applied to the department and have a minimum average of 80%
- if there are other faculty that wish to meet with the applicant, they should contribute to the share of expenses not covered by the grad budget
- lunch with graduate students (max $150, no alcohol)

Total max covered by grad budget $1150
