

TRAVEL/ EXPENSE CLAIM GUIDELINES

- Expenses will not be reimbursed until travel/ expense has occurred. If you are attending a conference or traveling, you can initiate a Cash Advance so you will not be out-of-pocket.
- Expenses for a group can only be claimed by the most senior person present. Expenses are to be claimed only by the individual who incurred the expense.
- Maintain one claim per trip. If it's more than one claim, the subsequent claim must reference the initial claim.

2. Claims for accommodation with colleagues, friends, or relatives, in place of hotel accommodations, must state the name of such individuals. No receipts are required. Please refer to the Treasury Board Directive: <https://www.njc-cnm.gc.ca/directive/d10/v238/s659/sv18/en>

Private Vehicle and Rental

1. Use of a private vehicle should be limited to travel where no suitable public transportation is available or where a private vehicle is more economical considering all factors such as costs, time constraints, itinerary, etc. Car rental rates should also be considered as quite often more economical – see Western’s “Preparing to Travel” link below.
2. Kilometric reimbursement rates follow the Treasury Board of Canada Travel Directive. If a traveler claims mileage, fuel costs cannot be reimbursed.
3. When claiming transportation-auto-km allowance, either the addresses of the starting location and destination are to be included in the line description OR a screenshot of a map that outlines the distance is required.

Daily Meal Reimbursement

For meals incurred on university-related business, individuals have a choice either:

1. Meal allowances and per diems:

	1-30 days	1-30 days	1-30 days
Breakfast	$15 CAD	$15 USD	$17 CAD
Lunch	$20 CAD	$20 USD	$28 CAD
Dinner	$30 CAD	$30 USD	$40 CAD
Daily Maximum	$65 CAD	$65 USD	$85 CAD

- Per diems are permitted regardless of the funding sources unless specifically disallowed by a granting agency or a supervisor
2. The actual meal costs supported by original itemized receipts up to the maximum allowable Treasury Board meal rates <https://www.njc-cnm.gc.ca/directive/d10/v238/s659/sv18/en>

Note that where original, itemized meal receipts (incl. proof of payment) are lost or otherwise unavailable, meal allowance will be reimbursed.

Please note meal reimbursements are not eligible for any meals that are included in the cost of the accommodation charge, conference fee, transportation fare, or other associated fees. For example, if your hotel receipt includes restaurant charges, please deduct the amount from the accommodation claim. You need to claim the restaurant charges as a meal claim in a separate line. If you claim the actual cost of the restaurant charges, please submit the receipt from the restaurant for the meal claim.
