

GRADUATE DEVELOPEMENT WORKSHOPS FALL 2023

WHAT IS PUBLIC HUMANITIES? FUTURES FOR ENGAGED SCHOLARSHIP & PEDAGOGY

Thursday, October 12, 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. – UC 4401

- Josh Lambier (Artistic Director of Words Festival & Director of the Public Humanities, Western)

GETTING IT DONE: PRODUCTIVE WRITING STRATEGIES

Thursday, October 19, 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. – UC 4401

- Nadine Fladd (Manager, Graduate Student and Postdoctoral Fellow Programs, University of Waterloo)

WHAT ARE YOUR STRENGTHS? TAPPING SKILLS FOR JOBS

Thursday, October 26, 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. – UC 4401

- Meghan O'Hara (Coordinator, Strengths Programs, Western)

HUMANITIES CAREER PATHWAYS

Thursday, November 9, 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. – UC 4401

- David Feeney (Career Coach, Graduate & Postdoctoral, Careers & Experience, Western)

WORKING WITHIN & BEYOND THE UNIVERSITY

Thursday, November 9, 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. – UC 4401

- Kim Duff (Advanced Business Analyst, Electronic Arts)
- Heather Latimer (Assistant Professor, Gender, Women, and Sexuality Studies, UBC Okanagan)

CVS AND COVER LETTERS + WORKING INSIDE THE UNIVERSITY

Thursday, November 23, 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. – UC 4401

- Jeremy Johnston, Program Specialist, Graduate Student Life & Assistant Professor (limited duties), Department of Gender, Sexuality, & Women's Studies, Western

WHAT FACULTY CAN DO? SUPPORTING GRADUATE STUDENTS IN TODAY'S JOB MARKET

Thursday, November 30, 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. – UC 4401

- A roundtable discussion regarding the role that the department and faculty can play in supporting graduate students in today's job market.

PLEASE RSVP: kate.stanley@uwo.ca

For more information about workshops or to book consultations regarding jobs, grants, etc., please email the Graduate Development Coordinator, Kate Stanley: kate.stanley@uwo.ca