CLINICAL ACADEMIC POSITION HEMATOLOGIST / HEMATOPATHOLOGIST

The Department of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine in the Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry at Western University, London Health Sciences Centre, and St. Joseph's Health Care London, is seeking a Hematologist or Hematopathologist for a full-time clinical academic appointment.

Position Profile: The successful candidate will have expertise in interpretation of blood films, bone marrow aspirates and flow cytometry and will be expected to play a supportive role in the transfusion medicine, hemoglobinopathy and hemostasis laboratories. Participation in teaching and supervision of undergraduate students, residents, and clinical fellows, as well as research and quality initiatives is expected. Hematologist applicants will be expected to maintain participation in hematology clinics commensurate with the laboratory mandate and upon agreement and approval from the Chair/Department Heads of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine, and Hematology, and would be cross-appointed in the Department of Medicine. Hematopathologist applicants will be expected to participate in another area of laboratory practice, commensurate with experience and/or training. Candidates will hold a full-time, limited-term clinical academic appointment at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor or a continuing appointment as Associate or Full Professor, depending upon experience and qualifications at the time of appointment.

Qualifications: The successful candidate will be certified in Hematology and/or Hematopathology by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, or equivalent. Candidates must have an MD, or equivalent, and must be eligible for licensure by the College of Physicians & Surgeons of Ontario (CPSO) in the province of Ontario. A proven track record in clinical research and education related to hematology and utilization of diagnostic services and/or quality improvement research in laboratory utilization will be considered an asset. Candidates must hold an MD or equivalent and be eligible for medical licensure with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario.

The Department and Hospital: The Division of Hematology lies within the Department of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine. The Hematology Laboratory physicians provide a range of diagnostic services including blood and marrow interpretation, flow cytometry, hemostasis thrombosis and transfusion medicine supporting programs in malignant and benign hematology, stem cell transplantation, thrombosis and bleeding disorders in Southwestern Ontario, serving a population of 1.5 million.

The University and City: The Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry at Western University is one of Canada's preeminent medical and dental schools and has demonstrated a commitment to academic excellence and a passion for scientific discovery for over 130 years. Western University is located in London, Ontario, Canada with a metropolitan census of 530,000. London boasts an extensive educational and health care community including three teaching hospitals, two research institutes, an Institute for Clinical Evaluative Sciences (ICES) node, and an academic health sciences network across Southwestern Ontario. Western's Recruitment and Retention Office is available to assist in the transition of successful applicants and their families to the university and city.

Compensation: Compensation for this position will be primarily composed of hospital funding aligned with the Ontario MOH Laboratory Medicine Funding Framework Agreement.
