RESTORATIVE DENTISTRY – ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

SCHULICH SCHOOL OF MEDICINE & DENTISTRY

UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO

LONDON, CANADA

The University of Western Ontario (Western University) is an internationally renowned research-intensive university that is ranked among the top-ten in Canada, and prides itself in the “student experience” of its educational programs. Included in these programs are medical (MD) and dental (DDS) students within the Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry (the School), which accounts for the only other dental school in Ontario that is outside of Toronto. The Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry has a long tradition of excellence, beginning with the founding of the medical school in 1881 and continuing with the formation of the dental school in 1964. It is one of Canada’s preeminent medical and dental schools and is known for being the birthplace of family medicine in Canada. For more than 130 years, the School has demonstrated a commitment to academic excellence and a passion for scientific discovery. Accordingly, the dental school draws on a highly qualified and talented pool of applicants that train in very rigorous and demanding professional programs. The didactic content is enriched by the medical sciences, and the clinical experience supported by local general and specialist practitioners, and a large patient pool from across Southwestern Ontario.

Applications are invited from qualified individuals for a position in Restorative Dentistry at the Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry to begin on September 1, 2020, although an alternate start date may be arranged. The successful candidate will be appointed in a Full-time Probationary (tenure-track) appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor. Preference will be given to highly qualified candidates who have an established record of research and scholarly activity and who may possess a PhD degree and/or postdoctoral research fellowships. Candidates must possess a DDS/DMD degree (or equivalent) and have successfully completed a full-time, postgraduate program of at least 24 months duration in a relevant area of Restorative Dentistry, with a preference for experience and training in Operative Dentistry. Candidates must be eligible for full or academic registration (licensure) as a dentist within the Province of Ontario, as stipulated by the Royal College of Dental Surgeons of Ontario (RCDSO).

Successful candidates should have a demonstrated aptitude for teaching and research and will be required to provide didactic lectures, pre-clinical instruction and clinical supervision of students enrolled in the undergraduate DDS, internationally trained dentists (ITD) and dental postgraduate programs at Western. The successful candidate must be able to adapt to the current didactic and clinical curriculum of the program, and will be expected to serve as a Course Director and effectively administer and deliver assigned courses. Candidates must have excellent oral and written communication skills in the English language and must be willing to work in a collaborative manner in all three areas of teaching, research and administration. Compensation will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. The opportunity for private practice is afforded by the provision of a consulting privilege of one day/week.

With a full-time enrolment of 32,000, Western University graduates students in a full range of academic and professional programs. The University campus is in London, a city of 360,000, located midway between Toronto and Detroit. With parks, tree-lined streets and bicycle trails,
London is known as the “Forest City”. London boasts an international airport, galleries, theatre, music and sporting events. See www.lede.com/why-london to learn more. Western’s Recruitment and Retention Office is available to assist in the transition of successful applicants and their families. For further information, please see: www.schulich.uwo.ca/dentistry and www.london.ca.

Applicants must complete the “Application for Full-Time Faculty Position” form at www.uwo.ca/facultyrelations/faculty/Application-FullTime-Faculty-Position-Form.pdf and submit this form along with a cover letter, teaching and research statement and updated curriculum vitae, and the names of three references to:
