

Student Demographics
New Faculty Orientation
August 16, 2024

46,000 full-time students (including Affiliated University Colleges)

29,000 undergraduate students (main campus)

7,100 graduate students

6,700 incoming first-year students

5,900 first-year students living in residence

57% women

42% men

1% other or do not identify with the gender binary

34% of incoming students are 17 years old

58% of incoming students are 18 years old

7% of incoming students are 19+

By the end of the school year (May 1), 59% of the incoming class is still under 19

79% of incoming first-year students are from Ontario

11% of incoming first-year students are from rest of Canada

10% of incoming students are international, representing 122 different countries

- China, India and South Korea are most common source countries for undergraduate students
- China, India and Iran are most common source countries for graduate students
- Saudia Arabia is most common source country for medical residents

Most common first names

- Emma, Oliva, Lauren
- Ethan, Daniel, Matthew

Li is the most common last name on campus

90.7% is the average incoming average from high school

73.3% is the average after first-year students

First-year student faculty of choice

- 2% Music
- 4% Arts
- 5% FIMS
- 14% Engineering
- 16% Health Science
- 29% Science
- 30% Social Science

17.4% of students identify of LGBTQQ2SIA

Racial Identity of Students

- 0.3% Indigenous Global
- 2.2% Other/Multi-racial
- 2.7% South East Asian
- 2.8% Prefer not to say
- 3.3% Latin American
- 4.6% Black
- 6.5% Middle Eastern
- 11.8% South Asian
- 17.5% East Asian
- 48.3% Caucasian

16% of students are First-Generation (first in their family to attend college or university)