

Exploring Black Health and Wellbeing

Thursday, February 6, 2025 12-1pm via Zoom

REGISTER TODAY at: https://uwu.eu.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_8qsjQre1EnUiOSa

The Anti-Racism, Anti-Oppression and Decolonization Committee (DARAO) of the Arthur Labatt Family School of Nursing is proudly hosting a speaker series honouring Black History Month with thought-provoking presentations by an esteemed panel of Black scholars.

Carolyn Tinglin, PhD (ABD), MEd, MSc, RN

The Everydayness of Racism &
Ableism: Impacts on Black Disabled
Youth

Dr. David Green, PhD

Black Families in Canada:
Becoming Successful and Sustainable

Dr. Cornel Grey, PhD

Dangerous Desires: Black Queer
Intimacy and the Politics of Touch

This event aims to foster a deeper understanding of the systemic challenges and triumphs of Black individuals. This event amplifies diverse perspectives encouraging actionable dialogue, and highlights nuanced perspectives of Black identities. After an introductory discussion with our panel of speakers there will be a Q&A session following all of the presentations. We look forward to engaging with you!

Western
Arthur Labatt Family
School of Nursing

Anti-Racism, Anti-Oppression and Decolonization Committee (DARAO)

Speaker Series 2024-2025