

Übung macht den Meister...

German

Intermediate

Participation

Objectives

- Improve oral fluency through guided conversations and presentations in German.
- Familiarize students with contemporary life and current issues in German-speaking countries.
- Expand vocabulary for both general conversation and specific topics discussion.
- Provide a solid foundation for advanced courses in German and prepare for exchange opportunities.

Learning Outcomes

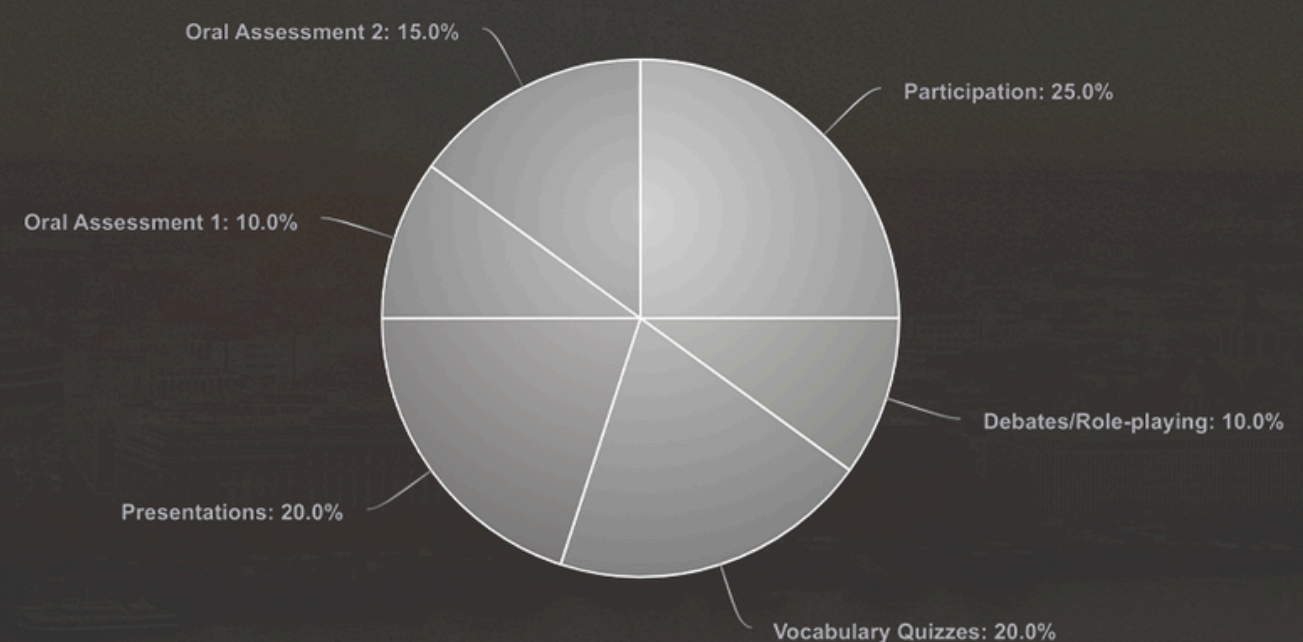

- Speak German with greater confidence and fluency.
- Broaden both passive and active vocabulary.
- Comprehend everyday spoken German and handle various conversational situations.
- Demonstrate intercultural competence and cultural awareness of German-speaking countries.
- Deliver meaningful oral presentations and participate in discussions on prepared topics.

Pre-requisites

German 2200 or permission of the department

Methods of Evaluation

Participation	25%
Debates/Role-playing	10%
Vocabulary Quizzes (5 total)	20%
Presentations (4 total)	20%
Oral Assessment 1	10%
Oral Assessment 2	15%

GERMAN 2220A

Department of Languages, Cultures, and Linguistics