

Conference & Research Travel Award Application for Philosophy Graduate Students 2018-19 REIMBURSEMENT PRE-APPROVAL REQUEST FORM

Information and Guidelines:

What: A fund created in the Faculty of Arts and Humanities, Department of Philosophy to partially support travel for graduate students participating in academic conferences and research.

Amounts: Up to $700 will be awarded. [Eligible expenses: transportation, accommodation, registration fees]

NOTE: The funds awarded to an individual student may fall under the maximum depending on the number of eligible applications received and approved.

Eligibility for Funding:

- a. Applicants must be full time students in good standing and enrolled in the Department of Philosophy graduate program at the time of application. Priority will be given to students who are within the funding period and do not hold external grants.
- b. If the funds are to be used for travel to a conference, the student must present a paper at a conference that is relevant to the student's academic research area. Typically, this paper will be accepted on the basis of a peer review selection process. The Department's selection committee will take the justification for travel into account when making its decisions (see list of required attachments on application forms). Please note that commentaries on papers are not eligible for funding.
- c. If applying for travel for research, students must show its relevance to their thesis
- d. Applications must include copies of travel estimates or itineraries that include costs (e.g. from Expedia, airline websites, hotel websites, or travel agency)
- e. Maximum one award per student per fiscal year (May 1-April 30)

Application Dates:

Fall: November 1 (for travel commencing between November 1 and April 30)
Winter: April 15 (for travel commencing between May 1 and October 31)

Special Circumstances: Because of the lead time necessary for financial planning, students are encouraged to submit requests for projects that are not yet finalized (e.g. conference papers not yet accepted). Funding can be granted conditionally. Upon the paper's acceptance, applicants must provide a copy of the acceptance and/or conference program to be reimbursed. Funds may not be redirected if the paper is rejected.

Selection Committee: Graduate Chair in consultation with the Area Chairs.

Applying for and Claiming Award:

1. Complete and submit the appropriate application form to the Graduate Program Coordinator by the Fall or Winter Deadline (for Conferences – Form A, for Research – Form B).
2. Award recipients will be notified within three weeks of application deadline.
3. A Graduate Travel Expense Reimbursement Form (see department website or assistant) and original receipts including boarding passes must be submitted within 60 days following the conference/research trip to claim award.
4. Claims will be processed within 2-3 weeks of receipt (assuming forms and receipts are in order).
5. Do NOT send receipts with application. They must be submitted after travel is approved and completed.
