

Course Title: Kant's Critique of Practical Reason
C. Dyck

Description: In this seminar we will engage in a close reading of Kant's second Critique. We will consider its context, both broadly and within Kant's developing moral philosophy, and its various doctrines, including the fact of reason, respect for the moral law as the sole moral incentive, the highest good, and the postulates of pure practical reason.