

Diploma in Ethics Application FormWestern Graduates

Students who have previously graduated from Western must:

- Apply to be accepted in the Diploma in Ethics program by submitting the Diploma in Ethics Application form to the Department of Philosophy
- Once accepted, complete a Change of Status Form in the Department.

Students who have been awarded a first degree equivalent to at least a 15-course degree at Western with a minimum overall average of C (60% in the context of Western's grading system) are eligible to apply for admission to take courses for credit as Special Students.

Non-Western Graduates

Students who are graduates of another University must apply to Undergraduate Admissions by submitting an application form to the Ontario Universities' Application Centre in Guelph. Application deadlines are listed below.

Once admitted to Western as a Special Student, students must apply to be accepted in the Diploma in Ethics program by submitting the Diploma in Ethics Application form to the Department of Philosophy. Once accepted, complete a Change of Status Form in the Department.

Students who are currently attending Western as Special Students must apply to be accepted in the Diploma in Ethics program by submitting the Diploma in Ethics Application form to Department of Philosophy, and contact Mrs. B. Barratt in order to complete an Intent to Register form (signed by both the Faculty of Arts and the Department of Philosophy). Students will be adjudicated for eligibility once final grades are available for the current year.
