

Nomination Form for the Chair's Essay Prize in Philosophy

The Chair's Essay Prize in Philosophy is for the best essay written by an undergraduate student in Year 2 or higher in a main-campus Philosophy course taken during the fall or winter term of the current academic year.

Instructors will be asked to nominate essays, but students can also nominate themselves if they have the endorsement of the instructor for whom the essay was written (i.e., their signature on this form).

The Chair of Philosophy will select the award recipient, who will receive $750 and have their name added to a plaque on the third floor of the Philosophy department, near the Chair's office.

All submitted essays should have a cover page that includes the following information: the student's name, student number, email address, and full mailing address, and the number of the course for which the essay was written. All identifiers should be removed from the essay itself.

Nomination forms and essays are due April 15 and should be submitted to the Undergraduate Program Coordinator, Sarah Murdoch at sarah.murdoch@uwo.ca in PDF or DOC format.
