

Metrics available in WorldCat.org

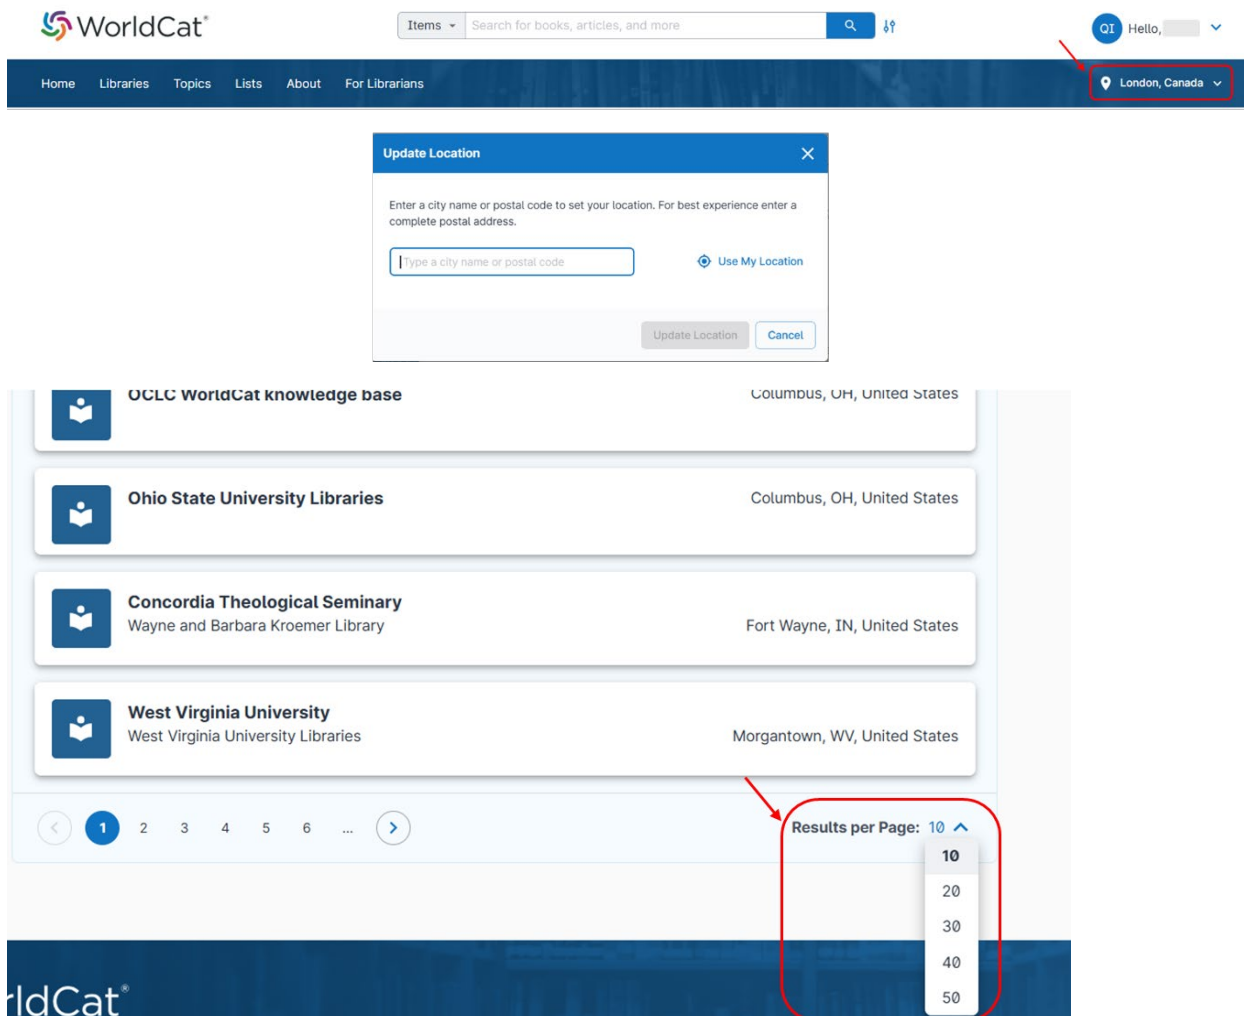

- After signing into WorldCat.org at <https://search.worldcat.org/>, type in the title of a book/journal, or the name of an author, to find the book/journal of interest.

- By clicking into the details page of the book/journal of interest, following information will be available on the page (if applicable):
 - All formats and editions of the book/journal (e.g., e-version, print version, various editions, various languages, etc.);
 - Number of libraries holding the book/journal;
 - Public libraries holding the book/journal;
 - City, state/province, country of the libraries holding the book/journal.

Tip: Changing the location setting and/or viewing 50 results per page may be helpful for viewing more libraries (and their locations) around the world.
