3. Course Syllabus, Schedule, Delivery Mode

Course Description

Completely randomized designs, randomized complete and incomplete block designs, factorial and fractional factorial designs, latin square designs, hierarchical designs, random and fixed effect model. Additional material may be added as time permits.

Course Objectives

To make use of appropriate designs when analyzing various types of experimental data, and then, to be able to test relevant hypotheses and interpret the results.

Contingency plan

Although the intent is for this course to be delivered in person, should any university-declared emergency require some or all of the course to be delivered online, either synchronously or asynchronously, the course will be adapted accordingly. The grading scheme will not change. Any assessment affected will be conducted online as determined by the course instructor.

4. Course Materials

The recommended textbook is

Design and Analysis of Experiments by D.C. Montgomery (Wiley).

Any edition

*A copy of this book can be borrowed at the Taylor Library's desk.

Reference Book

Statistics for Experimenters, Design, Innovation and Discovery, 2nd edition, (Wiley) by George E. P. Box, J. Stuart Hunter and William G. Hunter.
Not required

Additional course material will be posted to OWL: <http://owl.uwo.ca>.

Students are responsible for checking OWL (<http://owl.uwo.ca>) for announcements and updates on a regular basis. This is the primary method by which information will be disseminated to all students in the class.

If students need assistance, they can seek support on the OWL Help page. Alternatively, they can contact the Western Technology Services Helpdesk. They can be reached by phone at 519-661-3800 or ext. 83800.

5. Methods of Evaluation

The overall course grade will be calculated as follows:

Presentation

Students will be required to give an oral presentation - worth 25% of the course mark

No assignments but problems will be suggested and solutions, provided.

Tests

Two in-class tests, each worth 25%, the first one to take place on Wednesday October 9th and the second one, on November 13th. In the event that one misses a test and provides the required supporting documentation, the other test will be worth 35%, the oral presentation 35% and the final project 30%. If one misses the first test, the presentation must take place by October 23rd. As per departmental policy, no make-up exam will be administered. The tests are 'closed book' although crib sheets may be allowed as will be specified beforehand on OWL. A nonprogrammable calculator will be required.

Final Project

No final exam but a final project worth 25%.

A self-reported absence may only be submitted for one of the tests.

Academic Policies

If you are unable to meet a course requirement due to illness or other serious circumstances, you must provide valid medical or other supporting documentation to your Dean's office as soon as possible, and contact your instructor immediately. If accommodation is approved by your Dean's office, your instructor will be notified, then it is your responsibility to make alternative arrangements with your instructor. In the event of a missed final exam, a "Recommendation of Special Examination" form must be obtained from the Dean's Office immediately. For further information please see: http://www.stats.uwo.ca/accommodation\_medical.pdf. A student requiring academic accommodation due to illness, should use the Student Medical Certificate when visiting an off-campus medical facility. Or, request a Record's Release Form (located in the Dean's Office) for visits to Student Health Services. Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at this website: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/appeals/scholastic\_discipline\_undergrad.pdf.

Please note that unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites. In accordance with policy, <http://www.uwo.ca/its/identity/activatenonstudent.html> the centrally administered e-mail account provided to students will be considered the individual's official university e-mail address. It is the responsibility of the account holder to ensure that email received from the University at his/her official university address is attended to in a timely manner. The website for Registrarial Services is <http://www.registrar.uwo.ca>. The Department has adopted a "Mutual Expectations" policy governing the classroom environment and all work submitted by students. The full text of the policy can be found at <https://www.uwo.ca/stats/undergraduate/mutual-expectations.html>. In summary, the policy was developed under the premise that all interactions between students and faculty should be governed by the principles of courtesy, respect and honesty.

The department adopted a policy whereby there will be no make-up exams for missed tests. If a student legitimately misses a midterm test and provides the required supporting documentation, the evaluation components will be reweighted as previously specified.

Religious Accommodation

When a course requirement conflicts with a religious holiday that requires an absence from the University or prohibits certain activities, students should request accommodation for their absence in writing at least two weeks prior to the holiday to the course instructor and/or the Academic Counselling office of their Faculty of Registration. Please consult University's list of recognized religious holidays (updated annually) at <https://multiculturalcalendar.com/ecal/index.php?s=c-univwo>.

Absences from Final Examinations

If you miss the Final Exam, please contact the Academic Counselling office of your Faculty of Registration as soon as you are able to do so. They will assess your eligibility to write the Special Examination (the name given by the University to a makeup Final Exam). You may also be eligible to write the Special Exam if you are in a "Multiple Exam Situation" (e.g., more than 2 exams in 23-hour period, more than 3 exams in a 47-hour period).

If a student fails to write a scheduled Special Examination, the date of the next Special Examination (if granted) normally will be the scheduled date for the final exam the next time this course is offered. The maximum course load for that term will be reduced by the credit of the course(s) for which the final examination has been deferred. See the Academic Calendar for details (Special Examinations).
